WHAT IS THE LION'S SHARE?

The Lion's Share is our new name for St. Leo Catholic School's annual giving campaign. The majority (or "lion's share") of the funds we raise during the campaign will go toward tuition assistance for families who wouldn't be able to afford a superb Catholic education otherwise. Additional funds may be used for new textbooks, for enhanced technology for our students and teachers, and for beautifying our school grounds.

WHAT IS THE GOAL OF THE CAMPAIGN?

This year's goal is $100,000. Providentially, several generous benefactors have pooled their resources and created a matching gift of $50,000. This means that if we can raise $50,000 by December 31, 2020, the school will have $100,000 to fund the important priorities mentioned above. It also means that every dollar donated to the Lion's Share will have double the impact on the St. Leo student experience.

WHAT HAPPENED TO THE TRIAD CATHOLIC SCHOOLS FOUNDATION ANNUAL FUNDRAISING CAMPAIGN?

Last year, the Triad area Catholic schools principals, in concert with diocesan officials, decided to discontinue the Triad Catholic Schools Foundation. Each school is now doing its own annual fund campaign, and as we mentioned above, the new name of St. Leo Catholic School's annual fund campaign is the Lion's Share. There will be no mailing from the diocese regarding the Triad Catholic Schools Foundation from now on, so you are assured that every dollar you donate will go directly to St. Leo Catholic School.

IS MY GIFT TAX DEDUCTIBLE?

Yes, all gifts made on or before December 31, 2020, are tax deductible.

HOW LONG DOES THE CAMPAIGN LAST?

This year's Lion's Share campaign runs from October 1 to December 31, 2020.
